Compagnie Houppz! Presents

Splash₂0

Created and performed by

Etienne Bayart Mathieu Chouinard Dan Watson

At the 2006 Toronto Fringe Festival

Three mischievous minds perform a gigantic belly flop!

This international Lecoq based company (France-Canada) brings you an aquatic comedy composed of short visual and comic sketches played by 3 actors using a minimum of props and a maximum of ingenuity and imagination. Each scene explores the many facets of water in our lives, both its poetry and folly, using many different styles such as clown, mime, cabaret and the absurd. Splash₂0 is an innovative and touching spectacle for the whole family. Dive into the Unexpected!

★★★★★ If you only go to see one thing at this year's fringe it should be Splash₂0
